

XCENTRIC, LLC Earns Microsoft Gold Certified Partner Status

ALPHARETTA, GA, 20 May 2008— Xcentric, LLC earned Microsoft Gold Certified Partner status. With this title, Xcentric joins a group of elite Microsoft partners who have achieved the highest level of proficiency with Microsoft technology solutions.

Microsoft Gold Certified Partner status provides access to specialized Microsoft support and training, as well as a competitive advantage in the marketplace.

Gold Certified Partners must have at least 2 Microsoft Certified Professionals on staff or have developed at least 1 tested and certified solution. They must also attain at least 1 of 13 Microsoft Competencies and earn 120 Qualifying Partner Points, both of which can be earned through customer references, individual certifications, and/or development of tested, certified software based on Microsoft technologies. Xcentric achieved the “Network Infrastructure Solutions” and “Advanced Infrastructure Solutions” Competencies and has 7 Microsoft Certified Professionals on staff.

“This achievement highlights the value and experience Xcentric extends to our clients and enhances the offerings we provide for them,” said Mike Walter, Director of Professional Services at Xcentric.
